

A NEW ART EXHIBIT

3/20/69

"Man Running," a Lloyd Lillie charcoal, one of the works to be shown at the Duxbury Free Library in the exhibition now showing in the Helen Bumpus Gallery.

The current exhibition in the Helen Bumpus Gallery at the Duxbury Free Library opened on Sunday afternoon with a tea for the artists.

This Group Exhibition of seven artists is sure to please its viewers as there is something for every taste. There are colorful oils, water colors of figures, of scenes of the city. There is a magnificent sculpture of a young girl, a life size oil by Lloyd Lillie. The bronze sculpture of Elbert Weinberg's masterpiece, Barbara

Swan has a life size oil, Homage to Harry, which dominates one room. There are several pieces of sculpture tastefully played. Gay Youse is responsible for arranging this distinctive collection. Music from the stereo adds to one's enjoyment.

The artists exhibiting include Bernard Chaet, Marianna Pineda, Barbara Swan, Elbert Weinberg, Jack Kramer, Lloyd Lillie and Iso Papa.

The exhibit continues through April 12.
